PREFACE

There are three bear witness in heaven, God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit and the three are One. In the beginning, the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Holy Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. God the father spoke The Word and there was light; the three operated as One. Jesus Christ was at Jordan to be baptized, The Holy Spirit descended upon Him and God the Father spoke that “this is my beloved Son in whom I am well Pleased.” Unity cannot be over emphasized in the body of Christ.

It is in the light of the above that decided to bring together this Order of Service for the Redeemed Christian Church of God in North America. It is to have a uniform way of conducting our services and also to serve as a guide for all ministers as we officiate in our different offices and callings. It is therefore important that we adhere to the use of this manual as much as possible and also maintain the minimal time possible in all our services.

We pray that the Lord will continue to guide all of us in the use of this booklet.

DECLARATION

BEFORE SEALING THE MARRIAGE, THE OFFICIATING PASTOR SHALL DECLARE:

Dearly beloved, we are gathered here today before God and His people to join
Brother _____ and Sister _____ in Holy Matrimony.

Marriage is an honorable status ordained by God Himself before the fall of Man and it symbolizes the Union between Christ and the Church. That Christ sanctions Marriage is evidenced by the fact that He honored an invitation to a wedding in Canaan of Galilee and He performed His first Miracle there. Also, Apostle Paul pointed out that marriage is an honorable thing between a man and a woman and should be kept pure. Therefore, marriage should not be rushed into to satisfy the carnal lust. It has to be approached with dignity and the fear of the Lord.

Reason for Marriage:

- First, marriage is for mutual fellowship. This is an agreement that these two have reached as they are to be joined together.
- Secondly, Marriage is to check the sinful life of adultery so that those not gifted to be continent can marry and thus keep themselves holy as the body of Christ.
- Thirdly, marriage is ordained for the purpose of procreating and having children that will fear the Lord, abide with the teachings of His words and glorify His Holy name.

Therefore, if anyone has any reason(s) why these two should not be joined in holy matrimony, such a person should mention it now. If there is none, let everybody remain silent on this marriage forever.

The officiating priest question the couple-to-be

Now both of you should realize that you cannot be joined contrary to the will of God. Therefore, does anyone of you have reason(s) why you should not be jointed together in matrimony?the pastor paused for their answers).

The man's pledge to the officiating minister. The minister will ask thus:

Brother_____Do you take this woman in marriage? Will you love her, honor her; counsel her, as long as you both shall live? Will you leave other women and cleave to her alone as long as both of you shall live?

If a man agrees he should pledge thus: Yes, I do

Likewise the minister will seek the woman's pledge Thus:

Sister_____Do you take this man to be your husband so that both of you will live together according to the will of God concerning marriage? Will you love him, honor him, and cherish him throughout your life? Will you reject other men and cleave to him alone as long as you both shall live?

If the woman accepts she should pledge Thus: Yes, I do

After this the officiating minister should ask the congregation:

Who gave away this woman in marriage?

(The father or mother or any person chosen for the purpose comes forward to give the right hand of the lady to the officiating minister who in turn hands the lady over to the man.)

MAKING AGREEMENT

Holding the right hand of the woman, the man pledges thus, saying after the minister:

I, Brother_____Accept you Sister_____as my wife today to have and to hold, for better, in plenty, in health and in all circumstances. I will love you and cherish you according to the will of God, for the rest of my life, in the name of the father, son and the Holy Spirit.

After this the woman holds the man's right hand and declares, saying after the minister:

I, Sister_____today accept you_____

As my husband, to have and to hold, for better, in plenty, in health and in all circumstances. I will cherish and obey you according to the will of God, for the rest of my life, in the name of the Father, son and the Holy Spirit.

Then the man gives the woman a new copy of the Holy Bible and both hold it together during which the husband shall repeat the following after the minister.

With this Holy Bible, which is the word of God, I marry you. I surrender myself to you and I will cherish you with all my love and possessions in the name of the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit (Amen).

The minister then lays both hands on the new couple together and says:

For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother and cleave to his wife, and the two shall be one flesh, so they are no longer two but one flesh (Matthew 19:5-6). What therefore God hath joined together let no man put asunder.

As Brother _____ and Sister _____

Have agreed to be joined in Holy Matrimony even as they have confessed this before God and man and backed it up with the giving and receiving of the Holy Bible as an everlasting testament, I declared they should both live together as husband and wife as from today, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Notes

- i. Maximum time recommended for conducting this service is 60 minutes and if less the better
- ii. The minister who officiates at this gathering should bear in mind that this is a momentous occasion, which presents an opportunity to celebrate our faith and the goodness of God. The minister (pastor deacon, deaconess, minister, etc.) should therefore be prepared spiritually and mentally.
- iii. It is recommended that the minister should go with a team (at least with one other person) that has been informed before this celebration so that each member of the team should be prepared as well. The habit of picking someone familiar at the venue to play a part e. g. to lead prayer or choruses should not be encouraged.
- iv. This program should be review with the family before the celebration so that there would be an understanding of what to expect by both parties. This consultation can be done over the telephone.
- v. This ceremony of naming is not a cultural event and should not be turned into one. The Minister must watch out for this and actually pray for wisdom to handle it. This is why prior consultation with the family is necessary. Any anticipated role of grandparents or aunts and uncles of the baby should be clarified. The Minister does not want the occasion to arise that the grandfather/grandmother of the child on the pretext of having something to say will launch into family praises and paganistic invocations.
- vi. Experience has shown that the hosting families are never ready on time. So it will help if the Minister arrives with his team at least 15 minutes before the appointed time. This will help the family to get ready and the programme can start at the scheduled time.

- vii. The announcements should be used to inform the guests about the ministry of the church, her location and time of service.

INTERMENT AT GRAVE SIDE

Opening Prayer

We shall read these words at the Grave side: (before the deceased is interred)

1. Man that is born of a woman is of few days on Earth, and full of trouble. He grows and is hewed down as the flower of grass. He passes away like a shadow, without staying in a place.
2. In the mix of life, we stay in death. From whom shall we seek help but from you our Lord who is justified to be annoyed because of our sins?
3. Lord God Most High, Almighty God, Holy Savior and the most merciful, do not put us in painful agony of everlasting death.
4. Lord, you know the secret of our hearts. Do not be deaf unto our prayers. Most Holy God, Almighty God, Holy Savior and most merciful God, spare us. You are the most righteous Judge. Do not allow us to fall away from you because of death.

We shall also read these words:

1. As it has pleased the Almighty God, in His mercy to receive the soul of this dear brother/sister who had left this place and of a fact, without doubting the hope of resurrection into life everlasting through our Lord Jesus Christ, who shall transform our poor bodies into His own likeness which is glorious, according to the mighty works by which He could subdue all principalities by Himself
2. And I heard a voice from Heaven saying unto me, "Write, Blesses are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea saith the Spirit that they may rest from their labors.
